

Music and Messages for Telephone Hold

RE/MAX

“On Hold” Hang-Ups & the ADTEL® Strategy

After clients have taken the time to call your location, it is important to keep them on the line and focused on your business. We believe that professional on-hold messaging is a great way to let your callers know about all of your different products and services, relieve customer tensions, and put “on-hold time” to productive use.

That phone call may be a customer’s first contact with your business. Why waste time on a captive audience with “Dead Air” or risk advertising your competitor with the radio when you can use ADTEL®’s custom music & messages to create a lasting positive impression?
